in deciding to appoint a committee to investigate the Police Department of this city, has already evoked the keen est interest. Not only politicians and alleged law-breakers are anxiously discussing the subject, but every citizen, ereculating on the outcome.

Feculating on the outcome.

For months, years in fact, stories of all kinds have been circulated concerning the Department. Charges of blackmail have been made and only partially answered. The impression is abroad that the whole system is honeycombed with corruption: that politics runs through every arm of the service, and it has even been said that many officials ought to be behind prison tars for their misdeeds.

From the very suggestion of the reso From the very suggestion of the resolution appointing the committee one thing is apparent, that an attempt will be made to get to the bottom of whatever evil exists. After the resolution had been passed last night, Senator Saxton said that the Chamber of Commerce, which recently made charges against the Department, and the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, would be asked to substantiate all that they had said. Further than that, Senator Saxton added that they would be even asked to name the counsel who should conduct the investigation.

"I followed him around the town for days," said Mrs. Strauss, her black eyes flashing, "and on Saturday saw him go to this woman's house on Jackson street. I made some inquiries and found she had been married to him, and honestly believed he was her husband. So I didn't say a word to her, although under ordinary circumstances I would have scratched her eyes out."

Strauss seemed surprised when he was arraigned in court, and when ordered back he looked at his wife and said:
"Lailu, would you see me go to jail?"
"I would buy a spyglass if it were necessary," retorted the woman.
